Dear Sir or Madam,

The Master of Social Sciences in Sport and Leisure Management (SLM) Programme under the Department of Physical Education at Hong Kong Baptist University is pleased to inform you that the SLM has declared the Scholarship Scheme for students coming from Asian Countries. The primary aim of the Scholarship Scheme is to offer scholarship to sport or leisure administrators, practitioners, or athletes of Asian countries as an incentive for them to study our SLM programme in Hong Kong so that we can help nurture future leaders in the field of sport and leisure management in Asian countries. The details of the scholarship scheme have been listed below (also refer to the attachments):

Scholarship Award

One year full-time tuition fee (HK$120,000, approximately US$15,300) will be waived for an awardee. The maximum quota of scholarship is set at two annually

Scholarship Eligibility

The eligibility criteria are:

- An awardee must hold nationality from an Asian country with proof of residency in the Asian country (past 12 months) other than Hong Kong, Macau or Mainland China, and
- Former or current sport or leisure administrator, or practitioner with a minimum of 3 years of related professional experience as well as recommendation from government sport organization or National Olympic Committee or from other professional and academic body of the respective country, or
- Athlete who has participated in major international sporting events (Olympics, Asian Games, World Championships etc.) with recommendation from government sport organizations or National Olympic Committees, and
- The awardee has fulfilled the general admission requirements including an admission interview.

Programme Details

Applicants should possess a bachelor's degree or equivalent qualification from a recognized university.

Language Proficiency Requirement

Proof of English proficiency is required for all applicants whose first degree is obtained from non-English medium institutions. These applicants must meet the following minimum requirements for English proficiency:

SL. NO. 87, Dt. 13/2/19

The Department of Physical Education views the development of well-informed professionals who are able to guide and direct the future development of the sport and leisure industry as its main mission, and the Master of Social Sciences in Sport and Leisure Management is structured with this in mind. The programme emphasizes the need for students who are active sport and leisure administrators, to further develop themselves into reflective and creative professionals who can meet the changing needs of our society.

Aims of the programme

The programme aims to provide opportunities for students to take a reflective and interdisciplinary approach to the planning, provision, and management of sport and leisure. The programme also emphasizes a life-span approach to understanding the relationship among sport, leisure, and wellbeing, and offers students with opportunities for active learning in various settings.

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the programme should possess:

- A bachelor's degree or equivalent qualification from a recognized university. Priority will be given to applicants who have related majors (e.g. physical education, sport/exercise science, sport/recreation/leisure management) or relevant work experiences.
- Proof of English proficiency is required for all applicants whose first degree is obtained from non-English medium institutions. These applicants must meet the following minimum requirements for English proficiency:
 - a score of 537 (paper-based test), with a minimum score of 4.0 for writing section or 203 (computer-based test) with a minimum score of 4.0 for writing section, or 74 (internet-based test) with a minimum score of 21 for writing section in TOEFL; or
 - an overall band score of 6.0 with a minimum score of 6.0 for writing section and 5.5 for other sections in IELTS; or
